HOW TO OBTAIN A DEMOLITION PERMIT in Murray City

Apply at the Building Inspection Division in the Public Services Department located at 4646 South 500 West, Murray UT 84123. A packet of information, forms and examples are available.

1. Applicant needs to fill out highlighted portions of the permit application. Note: An appropriate Utah licensed contractor is required.
2. Applicant needs a form from the Utah Division of Air Quality [UDAQ] (contact person = Anne, 536-4000). Building Inspection will receive a fax directly from UDAQ with an "ACCEPTED" stamp on it.
3. Applicant needs a completed form from Salt Lake Valley Health Department [SLVHD] (contact person = Steve Beach, 313-6714). Applicant will bring a form with approval signatures from SLVHD to Building Inspection.
4. Applicant needs confirmation from Questar to shut off gas line (contact person = "Ask-A-Tech", you will get a "live" person, at 324-3287). Applicant must be sure to have the correct address when they call Questar. Building Inspection will receive a confirmation fax from Questar.
5. Applicant needs to contact Mary Ann Kirk at 264-2638 to discuss any historical significance of the building. Historic Preservation Board review will be required if the building is listed on the historic sites registry. Mary Ann will email Building Inspection approving the demolition.
6. Applicant must meet with the Operations Division (Water & Sewer Department 270-2440) to determine whether or not disconnect fees will be applied. If it is determined that fees do apply, the minimum cost will be $275.00, with a possibility of additional costs depending on time and materials used when the job is completed. A form indicating the fee or no fee will be returned to Building Inspection.
7. After all the above approvals and clearances have been granted, a demolition permit will be issued. The Murray demolition permit fee is $30.30.
8. After permit is issued, applicant needs to coordinate with Utility Billing at 264-2626 for utility disconnections.
